

JERRY CANS

You'd be surprised how an item so humble can be so eagerly received. But a lightweight, 5-gallon water jug is a welcome gift to any of the millions of women and children around the world who must walk great distances to carry water home every day. A heavy chore - but one you can help lighten.